Tadej POGAČAR

Naša Žena / Our Woman, 2013

C-print, 42 x 29,7 cm, (50 x 36.5 cm framed), 30 pcs.
ed. 1/3 + 1 A.P.

In the work Our Woman, Tadej Pogačar presents a series of magazine covers from the popular Slovenian family and women's magazine, Naša žena (Our Woman). Regularly published for 80 years, it is in fact the oldest periodical of its kind in Slovenia. It was launched in 1941, as a “gazette for the working woman”. Published by the Main Committee of the Women's Antifascist Front of Slovenia (a women's socio-political organization officially established in 1942), the magazine wished to actively include itself in the currents of societal events and to co-shape the image of the modern Slovenian woman. The work Our Woman with magazine covers from 1960 to 1970 deal with themes such as the media representation of women and the dominant ideology of the time, as well as the lifestyles and consumerism in Yugoslavia – at a time when the country's original version of self-management socialism was experiencing its peak of economic prosperity.
